

I am very concerned about the rule changes proposed by the FCC. This will have an enormous detrimental effect upon American society. We need diverse voices speaking diverse perspectives to the public. The public unwittingly follows what it sees and hears in the media. It needs balanced information to represent truth, and to be able to construct an understanding of reality that is most accurate.